WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20

Over the past two years, Connecticut Community Foundation, with the help of local stakeholders and nonprofits, has engaged in a learning process designed to make us a more effective and impactful funder. As a result of this process, the Foundation has used our new strategic plan to guide a redesign of our grantmaking priorities.

The new grant areas and guidelines are now available to check out on our website. Links to the 2021 Round 1 Grant Applications are also now live. We are seeking applications for:

- Building Equitable Opportunity
- Health and Environmental Justice
- Pathways for Older Adults
- Arts and Culture
- Women's Fund (and many more special grant areas)

Have questions about our new approach? Please join us to learn more at one of our January information sessions. This will be a chance for you to ask any questions about the process and the new priorities.
