

This is the Moment: Shaping the Future Through Responsive Change and Action

Connecticut Community Foundation invites you to join your neighbors for a community forum focused on the evolving community needs of the Litchfield Hills. We're bringing together local experts, nonprofit leaders, and community members to explore challenges, share solutions, and inspire meaningful action.

Tuesday, October 28
2:00 - 4:00 p.m.
Litchfield Community Center
421 Bantam Rd, Litchfield, CT

We'll hear from leaders tackling farming and food insecurity, housing, the social safety net, and the transportation needs of so many in our region. They include:

- Berta Andrulis Mette, Executive Director, Litchfield Community Center
- Jocelyn Ayer, Director, Litchfield County Center for Housing Opportunity
- Carrie Lee Bunblasky, Executive Director, Wheels of New Milford
- Howard Rosenfeld, Founder, The Farmer's Table

Following the forum, we'll leave space for networking and sharing resources with local organizations, including volunteer opportunities and community initiatives. We hope you can join us!

Please RSVP below by October 26.
