

Myths and Realities of Estate Planning in the 21st Century

July 18 at 5:30 p.m.

Naugatuck Valley Community College, Founders Hall

Waterbury

Register now

This free seminar will focus on common misconceptions about estate planning and the three documents every adult should have now, no matter their age. You'll also hear how to incorporate gift planning for maximum impact.

Explore your options with presenters Janie McDermott, attorney at Carmody Torrance Sandak & Hennessey LLP, and Heidi Green, director of development at Connecticut Community Foundation.

Register now for this informal and informational workshop. Light refreshments available.