

Women's Giving Circle

The Women's Giving Circle at Connecticut Community Foundation presents:

H.O.P.E.

Homeless Outreach Partnership and Engagement

Mark your calendar and register today to attend an in-depth discussion led by experts who work with the unhoused population in Greater Waterbury.

You'll hear about the challenges this population faces, the critical role of outreach, and the importance of collaboration between various stakeholders - including local municipalities, nonprofit organizations, and the community at large - to create a comprehensive and sustainable approach to address homelessness.

Our presenters:

Founder Rick Povilaitis and new Executive Director Joshua Royer from Brian Gibbons Homeless Outreach Program—an organization working to prevent and end homelessness in the Greater Waterbury area.

Wednesday, April 10

6-8 p.m.

State Education Resource (SERC)

175 Union St, Waterbury in Brass Mill Commons formerly the Timexpo Museum

Register Now

Please consider purchasing items needed for people served by Brian Gibbons Homeless Outreach by visiting their Amazon Wish List. We will also accept cash contributions at the event.

IT'S THE LAST CALL TO JOIN THE CIRCLE BEFORE GRANTMAKING BEGINS! JOIN NOW!