

Are you interested in learning about issues affecting women and girls in Greater Waterbury and the Litchfield Hills, pooling your resources with others and making informed grants to improve lives?

Join us to mingle, meet other potential members and share ideas about getting involved in the Women's Giving Circle at Connecticut Community Foundation.

On September 21 from 5:30 to 7 p.m., we'll gather at Mattatuck Museum at 144 W Main Street in Waterbury, Conn.

The Women's Giving Circle begins in October and promises to be an energizing way to meet like-minded people and together make thoughtful philanthropic decisions to advance women and girls in the region. Come to the gathering on September 21 to learn all about it.
