

Meet the 2022 Second Term Trustee Nominee

Kathy A. Brochhausen, a lifelong Naugatuck resident, has been employed at Ion Bank since 2011 and currently serves as Senior Vice President, Community Relations Officer and Executive Director of the Ion Bank Foundation. Prior, she worked in the human resources field for over 30 years.

Kathy has dedicated much of her personal time to volunteer service. She serves on the boards of many nonprofit organizations including Wellmore Behavioral Health, Are You Dense?, Jane Doe No More, Naugatuck Rotary Club, Connecticut Community Foundation, Saint Mary's Hospital Foundation, and the Palace Theater. Kathy is the treasurer for the Central Naugatuck Valley Service Unit of the Salvation Army.

Kathy's many honors speak to the excellence of her volunteer leadership. In 2021 Kathy was named Citizen of the Year by the Naugatuck Exchange Club for outstanding and dedicated service to the borough of Naugatuck. She was the 2019 recipient of the Lewis A. Dibble Award from the Naugatuck Chamber of Commerce which is presented annually to recognize; "a person's outstanding contribution to the business and socioeconomic well-being of Naugatuck". She received the Fredrick D. Zonino Memorial Volunteer Award in 2018 from the YMCA of Naugatuck.

The Rotary Club of Naugatuck awarded her a Paul Harris Fellow in 2014. She was the United Way's 2010 recipient of the Mary H. Connolly Community Caring Award; she has volunteered for the organization for over 30 years.
